Gambling

T-2 advised on June 12, 1958, that SAM ENGLISH is a well known gambler in the Cicero, Illinois area. Informant recalled that a few years ago ENGLISH used the garage at the rear of the 5th Jack Grill as a handbook operation but that this location is now being used to store records for juke boxes.

On October 24, 1961, T-1 advised that in the summer of 1955, a number of CAPONE syndicate gamblers were barred from race tracks in the Chicago area. In an article in the "Chicago Tribune" of October 19, 1954, it was stated "As the State Racing Commission yesterday stepped up its campaign to drive hoodlums out of racing, it was disclosed that the Chicago tracks have been waging their own war on unsavory characters who make book inside the track. More than 30 of these individuals,most of them agents for the hoodlum gambling syndicate, have been barred from Arlington and Washington Park Rack Tracks where they werereported to be doing busines at the rate of $100,000 a day". The article then listed 30 hoodlums who were barred by the tracks. Among those listed were:

SAM "BUTCH" ENGLISH;

and numerous others.

A police report indicated that the head of the gambling ring was CHARLES ENGLISH, brother of SAM ENGLISH. When CHARLES ENGLISH was evicted from the Washington Park Track, he brought suit in Federal Court. It is claimed that JAKE GUZIK, notorious CAPONE gang leader who served as a lieutenant to AL CAPONE and later TONY ACCARDO, stormed into the track office and demanded that CHARLES ENGLISH not be barred from the track.

Attempt of SAM ENGLISH To Avoid Testimony Before the Senate Rackets Committee

The "Chicago Daily News" dated July 2, 1958, carried an article captioned "6 Hoods Here Elude Subpoenas". This article recorded as follows:

> "Senate rackets investigators, try as they might, have been unable to find six top Chicago hoodlums.
> "The hoods obviously are on the run.
>
> "Two crime syndicate top dogs have been served with subpoenaes here. The papers ask them to show up in Washington Monday.
> "That's when the Senate rackets committee expects to get down to shoveling the heavy Chicago crime dirt.
>
> "The committee's Chicago staff has worn out a lot of shoe leather, visiting homes and hangouts of the hoods they want. They find nobody home - not even the chickens.
> "So far, they have failed to turn up:

"Sam Battaglia, 50, of 1114 N. Ridgeland, Oak Park, an old '42 Gang' member whose police record dates back to 1924.

"Guy Alex, 48, of 4300 Marine dr., former bodyguard of the late Jake 'Greasy Thumb' Guzik and a handbook operator.

"Sam 'Mooney' Giancana, 55, of 1158 Wenonah, Oak Park, the fastest-rising hoodlum in the Chicago area.

"Sam English, 1800 S. Austin, Oak Park, an old hand in Cicero handbooks.

"James 'Cowboy' Mirro, 1342 S. Austin, Oak Park, Cicero saloon and gambling joint operator.

"Eddie Sturch, two-gun operator along N. Clark, who was once bese described as the honky-tonk king.

"Investigators have scored in handing subpoenas this week to Ross Prio, 1721 Sunset Ridge rd., near Glenview, and Joey Caesar, alias Joey DiVarco, 4275 Jarvis, Lincolnwood.

"Prio, 57, is said to be North Side gambling boss in the syndicate. Caesar has been involved in Near North Side rackets."

At the request of the Senate Selection Committee on Improper Activities in the Labor Management Field, the FBI conducted investigation for the purpose of locating the individuals whose testimony was desired by the committee. On July 3, 1958, CHUCK ENGLISH, brother of SAM ENGLISH, advised SA WILLIAM F. ROEMER, Jr. that he had contacted his brother and told him to come back to Chicago and accept service of the Senate Selection Committee subpoena. ENGLISH advised that his reason for doing so was to relieve pressure on the ENGLISH family.

On July 6, 1958, the "Chicago Tribune" carried an article entitled "Key Witness Surrenders In Racket Probe". This article stated:

" A crime syndicate gambler, sought for months as a key witness in the Senate rackets committee probe of gangster influence in the Chicago restaurant industry, surrendered to committee agents Saturday.

"Sam (Butch) English, 41, a bookmaker and convicted burglar, appeared in the United States courthouse to accept a subpena for appearance before the committee in Washington this week.

"Mum on Duties

"However, English refused to tell committee investigators what duties he performed when he was hired as an adviser by Anthony V. Champagne, labor counsel for the Chicago Restaurant association in 1953 and 1954.

"Champagne accompanied Sam English and English's brother, Charles, 42, a crime syndicate lieutenant, to the courthouse. Another member of the group was Harry Accardi, who manages the 5th Jack club, 3340 5th av., owned by the English brothers.

"Champagne and Sam English had significant roles in the labor relations of the Chicago Restaurant association, one of the targets of the Senate hearings which will begin Tuesday.

"Successor to Teitelbaum

"An attorney who has represented top hoodlums, Champagne became the $120,000 a year counsel for the restaurant group in 1953 when another labor attorney, Abraham Teitelbaum, was unable to settle a strike called against the Marquis chain of restaurants.

"With English as his adviser, Champagne settled the strike without organization of the restaurants by the Hotel and Restaurant Employees union, 101 N. Wells st. English was paid $1,600 by Champagne from January to July, 1954.

"After Sam English accepted his subpena, his brother and Champagne were questioned by other Senate agents investigating hoodlum infiltration of the coin machine and juke box industry.

"Plan to Unmask Control

"Charles English, who lives at 1834 S. Austin av., Cicero, is the owner of a Chicago coin machine route and a phonograph record distributing company. He was arrested last February on a charge of counterfeiting popular records in what police said was an attempt to monopolize the distribution of records to Chicago juke box operators."

Employment By
ANTHONY B. CHAMPAGNE

On October 24, 1961, T-1 advised that ANTHONY V. CHAMPAGNE who handled labor negotiations for the Chicago Restaurant Association, in listing his expenditures stated that he employed SAM ENGLISH as an assistant labor agent from January to July, 1954, and paid him $1,600.

This tax claim arose out of handbook operations in Cicero, Illinois. The three partners in the Cicero handbook were: CHARLES ENGLISH, [redacted] and SAM ENGLISH. In the Government's claim against CHARLES ENGLISH and [redacted] the Government sought $1,303.26 in deficiency taxes for 1949 and a penalty of $66. From [redacted] the Government sought a 1949 tax deficiency of $2,217 and a 1949 penalty of $110; a 1950 tax deficiency of $1,250 and a 1950 penalty of $339. According to informant, the differences of opinion between the handbook operators [redacted] and SAM and CHARLES ENGLISH and the United States Government arose out of an interpretation of the handbook records. The Government contended that $31,956.10 of "cuts", i.e. amounts paid to successful bettors and handbook operators were claiming as expenses bets that they had never paid. When one of the partners, [redacted] testified in United States District Court, on January 18, 1956, he stated that the handbook was in charge of [redacted] believed to be [redacted] who kept the books and records and paid the expenses. BONNETTS stated that he operates the Bonets Music Company, which handles juke box operations in a number of locations on the south side of Chicago. He stated that he buys his records from the Lormar Distributing Company, 5954 West Roosevelt and Cicero. He stated that most other record distributing companies require a three to four week period before delivering the particular record. He stated that Lormar does not charge any premium for this service and, in fact, he believes that some records may be one cent cheaper than the records provided by other distributing companies.

He stated that he last saw CHUCK ENGLISH approximately one year ago when he, BONNETTS, visited the Lormar store. He stated that as far as he knows ENGLISH's activities are confined to the operation of this store and that to the best of his knowledge ENGLISH is not involved in any gambling or bookie activities.

He stated that he is also acquainted with SAM "BUTCH" ENGLISH, the brother of CHUCK ENGLISH, and that apparently SAMMY is in the Lormar store most of the time. At Miami Beach, Florida

On May 7, 1962, [redacted] Manager of the Singapore Hotel, 9601 Collins Avenue, Miami Beach, Florida, advised SA DON W. WALTERS that their records reflect a Registration Card #33795 for SAM [redacted] ENGLISH, 1800 South Austin Boulevard, Cicero, Illinois, who registered at the hotel on January 8, 1962 and occupied Room 730 until January 27, 1962.

He stated he had no record of any other individuals named ENGLISH having been registered at the hotel from the Chicago area. b6 b7C

[redacted] made available the records of the hotel reflecting the following telephone calls having been made from Room 730 during the pertinent period:

A public source which furnishes information regarding subscribers to the Illinois Bell Telephone Company in Chicago, Illinois, advised SA EUGENE I. SATHER on June 5, 1962 that telephone number SA 2-9424 is subscribed to by the Fifth Jack

CG T-13 advised that Sergeant [redacted] and another uniformed officer from the Filmore Police District had entered [redacted] Fifth Jack Lounge and asked all patrons for their identification. When [redacted] learned of this, he was irate and inquired of [redacted] as to the reason for this action. [redacted] is reported to have said that the captain of the Filmore District had ordered all taverns within the district to be checked for underage patrons and that he, [redacted] was not aware of the ownership of the Fifth Jack Lounge. b6 b7C

CG T-12 said [redacted] have indicated that [redacted] had a portion of the Filmore District extending from West End Avenue to Chicago Avenue and from approximately Pulaski to Cicero.

[redacted]

CG T-14 said that in connection with the operation of prostitutes within the ENGLISH district that SAM ENGLISH suggested that rather than operate houses, they would be well to follow the lead of [redacted] who does not attempt to cut into the prostitutes earnings at a fifty percent rate but instead charges each girl $10.00 per day with the threat that if they do not pay, they will be arrested by the police. b6 b7C

[redacted] also known as [redacted]

CG T-12 said that [redacted] is reportedly a recorder for all bets for the Buccieri group. He continuously frequents ENGLISH's Fifth Jack Lounge. b6 b7C

CG T-14 said that [redacted] had requested permission from SAM ENGLISH to return to the Maywood Race Track to engage in on-track bookmaking. ENGLISH refused permission due to the "heat" that is being placed at the tracks in connection with on-track betting. CG T-14 also advised that [redacted] has mentioned that his "office" was now out West on Roosevelt Road.

It should be noted that [redacted] previously mentioned the possibility of his working for the [redacted] group which has one of its headquarters as the Pink Clock on Roosevelt Road in Forest Park, Illinois. b6 b7C

[redacted]

CG T-13 said that [redacted] Security Officer, Sportsman's and Maywood Race Tracks, [redacted] b6 b7C b7D

DOMINIC SENESE

CG T-21 said that SAM "DUTCH" ENGLISH had been in contact with DOMINIC SENESE during the latter part of May, 1962.

Filmore District

CG T-14 advised that the captain of the Filmore District, Chicago Police Department, has ordered the bookmaking operation at the New Lawndale Restaurant closed on a temporary basis. However, CG T-14 said [redacted] b7D

On-Track Booking

CG T-17 advised that the person who drives a white Rambler, Illinois License [redacted] handles on the track booking activities for CHUCK ENGLISH. CG T-17 said that this individual has also been seen conferring with detectives at the Round the Clock Restaurant. Informant advised this person is seen at Lormars almost every morning and leaves shortly before the race track opens and reappears back at Lormars after the time the race track is closed. b6 b7C

This automobile is registered to [redacted] Illinois.

CG T-13 advised that [redacted] an ENGLISH lieutenant, has mentioned that both [redacted] Security Officer, Sportsman's and Maywood Race Tracks, and FRANK PAPE, Chief Security Officer, Arlington and Washington Race Tracks, were only allowing a favored few to operate on the track. b6 b7C

CG T-13 advised that "SAMBO" CESARIO and [redacted] (phonetic) are operating from the extreme top of the grandstands at the Balmoral Meet at Washington Park.

CG T-20 advised that the security officers at the tracks, [redacted] PAPE, are allowing several well-known Chicago bookmakers such as the ENGLISH [redacted] brothers to accept bets at the tracks for a surreptitious consideration. b6 b7C

CG T-20 said this was because of the pressure being placed on the tracks by the newspapers exposing the fact that several Chicago bookmakers were conducting bookmaking operations at Sportsman's Race Track, Cicero, Illinois.

CG T-18 advised that [redacted] appeared quite upset when he saw an individual at the Sportsman's Race Track who he felt was either a Federal agent or a Senate Investigating Committee investigator. [redacted] attempted to identify this man by having the State Tax Men at the track look at him, but they could not recognize him either. As a result of this man's activity at the track, [redacted] advised CHUCK ENGLISH and other bookies to discontinue their operation. b6 b7C

Prostitution

CG T-13 advised that the colored house of prostitution that was being operated for CHUCK and SAM ENGLISH at 201 South Pulaski had just received their telephone.

Re Phoenix airtel to the Bureau dated 10/9/62.

The following investigation was conducted by SA's DANIEL C. PELTON and ROY W. REGER:

AT RIMROCK, ARIZONA

On 10/9/62, it was determined by personal observation that RIMROCK GUEST RANCH is located about four miles east of McGuireville, Arizona, and is adjoining Montezuma Well National Park, and Lake Montezuma Subdivision. Signs are posted at the entrance to the ranch, advertising rooms for rent by the day or week, meals, trout fishing, and horses for rent on scenic trails.

The main ranch house is located on top of a hill, with several smaller buildings near the house. A swimming pool was observed near the house, and one car could be observed parked near the main ranch house. No persons were observed in the vicinity of the house, and no activity noted, although it was impossible to proceed to a point near the house without being observed.

AT CAMP VERDE, ARIZONA

On 10/9/62, [redacted] Deputy Sheriff, Yavapai County, advised that RIMROCK RANCH was formerly operated as a dude ranch, but for the past several years has not been operated as such. He said that as recently as a year ago, a Mexican couple were living at the ranch and keeping up the property for a California man who owned the ranch. He said he is in the vicinity of this ranch frequently and has noticed no unusual activity, although the signs advertising the ranch as a guest ranch were very recently put up. [redacted] said he knows nothing concerning the present occupants but will be alert for information in this regard without making any inquiries which might be referred to the occupants or owner. [redacted] stated that Lake Montezuma subdivision, which adjoins this ranch, is operated by a man by the name of [redacted] (PH), and appears to be a legitimate operation.

No contact is being made at ARIZONA TITLE INSURANCE AND TRUST COMPANY in Phoenix, in view of the possibility that such contact might be made known to JOE ENGLISH.

It is suggested that a practical means of determining the occupants and activity at this ranch would be the assignment of two Agents, using a suitable pretext, to be paying guests at this ranch for a period of one or two weeks. They, in fact, asked her if she would return to the ranch over the weekend starting October 12, 1962, to look after the property while they made a weekend trip to California. If any of the following information is to be utilized by other offices it must be carefully paraphrased in order to protect the identity of this source.

Source departed [redacted] b6 b7C and arrived in [redacted] He was accompanied on this trip by SAM ENGLISH and MIKE SABATINO. SABATINO has been described in the past as a close associate of SAMUEL M. GIANCANA and is employed in the capactiy of a collector for the GIANCANA organization.

The original destination of the above party was to be Acapulco, Mexico, where they were to be met by CHARLES ENGLISH, brother of SAM ENGLISH. The group was to look over some "Propositions" pending in the Acapulco area, the nature of which is unknown to the source at this time. SAM ENGLISH explained to the source, however, during the flight to Phoenix that "pressure of business" in Phoenix precluded the trip to Acapulco at that time, and the trip to that area was postponed to October 11, 1962.

Upon arrving in Phoenix, the party was met at the airport by JOSEPH ENGLISH, another of the ENGLISH brothers, and [redacted] b6 b7C They proceeded via automobile to a point located 93 miles easterly from Phoenix near Rimrock, Arizona. The last few miles were over mountainous roads, unimproved. They then arrived at a ranch described by SAM ENGLISH as belonging to CHARLES ENGLISH. The immediate plans are for incorporation of this acreage by seven men who will subdivide about 400 acres for real estate property.

The party proceeded to the ranch home of this acreage which is located on the top of a hill. [redacted] b6 b7C b7D

JOSEPH ENGLISH was described by the source as the individual who controls distribution of records to juke boxes in the Southwest area and also controls the disc jockeys. Source named one SAMMY NIGHT (or KNIGHT). At this point, it is noted [redacted] b6 b7C b7D

Continuing with the Phoenix trip, source stated they left the ranch after a few hours and proceeded back toward Phoenix and ate at the Smoke House Restaurant, where JOE ENGLISH is apparently well known.

They also stopped at a country club and golf course near Rimrock where JOE ENGLISH seemed to be in complete control. The party then proceeded to the Safari Motel in or near Phoenix, where they were registered in. [redacted] b6 b7C b7D

From the Safari, the party proceeded to the Celebrity House Restaurant and Club where they were met by an employee of the Celebrity House described by source as a midget who worked for the Pump Room of the Ambassador East Hotel in Chicago for over 20 years. While at the Celebrity House, the group described the Villa Venice Club, Wheeling, Illinois, a Chicago suburb. This club is undergoing extensive remodeling and is due to reopen in the very near future as one of Chicago's most exclusive supper clubs. ENGLISH advised informant that the Villa Venice is under the control of SAM GIANCANA and upon reopening will have a seating capacity of 600 persons. Cost of visiting this club will be $12.50 per person which will cover dinner and one drink. Entertainment will be provided by such luminaries as FRANK SINATRA, EDDIE FISHER, DEAN MARTIN, DEBBIE REYNOLDS, etc.

ReBucabs 9/25/62, 9/26/62 and 10/4/62.

Upon receipt of information from the Bureau to the effect that the subjects were scheduled to travel to Acapulco, Guerrero, Mexico, on 9/26/62, this office made arrangements through airline contacts and informants to cover their arrival in Mexico City and/or Acapulco.

On 9/27/62, [redacted] Chief of the Mexican Immigration Office at Acapulco, advised SA [redacted] that he is not acquainted with CHARLES ENGLISH or SAMUEL ENGLISH and has no record of either subject. b6 b7C

With respect to possible "promotions" in Acapulco, Legat contact [redacted] a U. S. citizen and Manager of the Hotel Palacio Tropical, advised SA [redacted] on 9/28/62 that the Guerrero State Government and the Mexican National Tourist Department are studying a proposal to permit Acapulco hotels to operate gambling casinos within the hotels. [redacted] stated that for several years, Acapulco hotels have been losing money and most of them are deeply mortgaged to the Mexican Federal Government. He stated that because of the excessive construction of hotel properties during recent years in the area, most of the hotels are deeply in debt and are virtually at the point of bankruptcy. He related that the proposal for legalized gambling was under study and was believed by many to be the only possible solution at the present time which would free the Federal Government of Mexico from having to foreclose its mortgages and virtually take over the hotel business in Acapulco. b6 b7C

TO BUREAU

Two (2) copies of a letterhead memorandum characterizing informants.

LEADS

No leads are being set out for the Los Angeles and Phoenix Offices as investigation is pending in those offices.

For the information of offices who have not received prior communications in this matter, the following is set forth:

SAM ENGLISH is the brother of CHARLES ENGLISH, also known as, (Bufile 92-5347) (CG92-917), and JOSEPH ENGLISH, who resides in Phoenix, Arizona. An active investigation is also being conducted on CHARLES ENGLISH.

According to information furnished by [redacted] CHARLES ENGLISH is a Lieutenant for SAM GIANCANA. Informant advised GIANCANA is the "top man" in the organized crime group in the Chicago group. In turn, SAM ENGLISH is the top Lieutenant for his brother CHARLES ENGLISH.

The ENGLISH organization along with controlling the Filmore District in Chicago, which includes houses of prostitution and bookmakers, among other things, control "on the track bookmaking" during the racing season in Chicago. b7D [redacted] advised that the ENGLISHs are also attempting to set up slot machines in some of the private clubs in the Western suburbs of Chicago.

CHARLES ENGLISH is also the owner of the Lormar Distributing Company, Inc. (Bufile 92-6163) (CG 92-1190). This firm, whose main source of revenue, is the sale of records to juke box operators, has used economic pressure on different juke box operators to get them to purchase records from the Lormar Company. Although at the present time SAM ENGLISH is not known to be an employee of the Lormar Company, he can be frequently observed at that location.

Regarding 5th Jack Club, 3340 West Fifth Avenue, from where the telephone calls were made as set out in this report, is a known hangout for the "ENGLISH organization". SAM ENGLISH can be seen there almost on a daily basis and remains there 3 or 4 hours at a time. The neighborhood where this club is located has changed from "white to colored"; however, during the daylight hours the club's clientele is predominantly white.

Inasmuch as the ENGLISHs are actively engaged in bookmaking the offices covering these leads are to be aware of any violation concerning gambling or interstate transportation in aid of racketeering. They are also requested to verify, if not known, the subscribers to the telephone numbers, conduct credit checks and criminal checks and unless there is some reason for not doing so, interview the subscribers in an attempt to learn their connection with the subject or the 5th Jack Club. All offices designate one copy for CG 92-917.

The following information was furnished by [redacted] and is being set forth here to aid in concealing his identity due to his close association with the ENGLISHs. Part of the following information will be set forth in the details; however, it will be carefully paraphrased. b6 b7C b7D

On November 30, 1962, Sergeant [redacted] Fillmore District, Chicago Police Department, came into Fifth Jacks Lounge looking for BUTCH ENGLISH. Sergeant [redacted]

BUTCH ENGLISH has advised that a friend of his, one [redacted] a realtor, will get several stops for the new exterminating service started by [redacted] It should be noted that SAM ENGLISH has set [redacted] and [redacted] up in business and plans at the present time to take no cut. The informant feels that as the business progresses ENGLISH will definitely cut into the profits and in all probability will, if the business is extremely successful, send a large portion of the profits to the "outfit", meaning to [redacted] b6 b7C b7D

According to the informant, one of the brothers-in-law of SAM ENGLISH is [redacted] Cicero, Illinois, who is associated with the Teddy Boy Brand, manufacturers of ricotta, in connection with the Washington Dairy Company.

Informant advised that the fiance of [redacted] is the daughter of one [redacted] (LNU), who comes from the [redacted] Street area. b6 b7C

Babs Lounge, 14 South Kedzie, which operates under aegis of the ENGLISH group is owned by [redacted] telephone number [redacted]

On December 2, 1962, informant advised [redacted]

[redacted] b6 b7C b7D

[redacted] ENGLISH's lieutenant, had an argument with his girl friend [redacted] on December 1, 1962. LOIS frequents a tavern called the Club House at 22nd and Oakley.

As previously reported, the ENGLISH organization is having certain problems with various police officers in the Fillmore District. As of December 2, 1962, no satisfactory agreement had been reached on the amount of money to be paid to these officers in order that the ENGLISH enterprises could operate unmolested. One Sergeant [redacted] of the Fillmore District is one of officers who insists on more money than ENGLISH is willing to pay. On December 1, 1962, Sergeant [redacted] single handedly raided the Oasis, a bar run by one [redacted] on Kedzie and Lake Street. Some 45 men were drinking in this bar after the legal closing hours. Instead of making any arrests, [redacted] took either $250 or $300 and gave the owners a pass. The Oasis is not in the ENGLISH territory but is controlled by JOE GAGLIANO for JACK CERONE. It is, however, a part of the Fillmore Police District. b6 b7C

On December 3, 1962, during the early morning hours, Sergeant [redacted] and Lieutenant [redacted] (phonetic), Fillmore District, Chicago Police Department, entered Fifth Jacks Restaurant and told [redacted] that they wanted to talk to BUTCH ENGLISH. In ENGLISH's absence the officers conferred with [redacted] later said that Sergeant [redacted] made it very clear to him that he and the Lieutenant were interested in making some money. [redacted] told the two officers that nothing was operating in the district at that b6 b7C time due to the misunderstanding between various police officers and the ENGLISH organization. The officers left shortly thereafter.

According to the informant, [redacted]

[redacted] The informant advised that [redacted] b6 b7C b7D

On December 7, 1962, [redacted] SAM ENGLISH had an appointment to see State Senator BERNARD J. NIESTEIN in an attempt to get the situation in the Fillmore District straightened out.

On December 8, 1962, [redacted] b6 b7C b7D WILLIAM DADDANO, advised the [redacted]

SAM ENGLISH is extremely enthusiastic over his property holdings in Arizona. He has indicated that he is planning to retire in Arizona and will go out there again after Christmas, 1962. He also hopes to spend more time in the Arizona area each year. ENGLISH has made inquiry concerning the cost of shipping his two horses from Chicago to his Arizona ranch.

CG 92-887

On December 8, 1962, Sergeant [redacted] was at Fifth Jacks Lounge where he spoke to [redacted] According to [redacted] all poker and crap games in the district are "down" due to the activities of the Organized Crime Division of the Chicago Police Department. Because of this, he refused to pay [redacted] any money. At about 3:00 AM on that same date [redacted] conferred with SAM ENGLISH who stated he expected to have definite word by Wednesday, December 12, 1962, concerning the activities to be allowed in the district. Until that time, neither [redacted] nor any other police officer would receive any protection money. b6 b7C

In connection with his Arizona property, SAM ENGLISH indicated that one [redacted] is one of a six man syndicate who owns a large tract of property immediately adjacent to ENGLISH's ranch. This syndicate recently sold their property and each received 15 times the amount of their investment which was $25,000 per man. In addition, FRANK SINATRA has allegedly bought 18 million dollars worth of property near Flagstaff, Arizona, and HOWARD HUGHES is contemplating a large purchase in the same area. b6 b7C

[redacted] long time girl friend, [redacted] has been identified by the informant as [redacted] Chicago.

On December 10, 1962, [redacted] mentioned that [redacted] was planning to run for alderman. b6 b7C

On the same date, NICK BRAVOS went to a restaurant owned by [redacted] in an attempt to secure [redacted] towel business. He told [redacted] that CHUCK ENGLISH had sent him over and mentioned that he had known [redacted] father and was acquainted with [redacted] the brother of [redacted] When CHUCK ENGLISH learned of this later that day, he indicated that he had not sent BRAVOS to the restaurant and felt that this was out of line on BRAVOS' part to use his name. At that time he indicated that neither he nor SAM ENGLISH had any financial interest in BRAVOS' towel business. b6 b7C

On December 11, 1962, Sergeant [redacted] Fillmore District, was observed talking to [redacted] at 3:00 AM in front of Fifth Jacks Lounge. [redacted] was seated in a squad car.

b6

On December 12, 1962, Sergeant [redacted] Chicago Police Department, had a conversation with [redacted] at 1:00 AM in Fifth Jacks Lounge.

On the same date [redacted], Chicago Police Officer, Traffic Division, spent several hours at Fifth Jacks Lounge while waiting to see State Senator BERNARD J. NIESTEIN. [redacted] was concerned with [redacted] efforts on his behalf to become a police sergeant. [redacted] WILLIAM DADDANO's nephew, said, "If I don't get on, [redacted] will be more disappointed than me. [redacted] talked to [redacted] and this is an order from CIGARS." The [redacted] mentioned would be WILLIAM DADDANO and CIGARS is SAM GIANCANA. Informant did not believe that [redacted] was important enough to have gotten special consideration from [redacted] but did believe that DADDANO was interceding on his behalf. [redacted] went on to say that it should be important to the "people" to make him a sergeant, since it would show everyone that you get ahead by cooperating with the "people". [redacted] was irrate that he was not already a lieutenant and felt that his suspension approximately one year ago had caused him to lose this chance. The suspension arose over an allegation that [redacted] had shaken down a narcotics suspect for a large sum of money. After waiting for about two and a half hours, [redacted] saw [redacted] who told him that "everything was all right. I've seen the Mayor about you."

b7C

On December 16, 1962, Sergeant [redacted] Fillmore Police District, came to Fifth Jacks but was unable to see SAM ENGLISH who was not present at the time.

b6
b7C

On December 15, 1962, Sergeant [redacted] had been in Fifth Jacks at approximately 3:00 AM and had received an unknown quantity of money from BUTCH ENGLISH.

CG 92-387

On December 8, 1962, the informant advised that the following two numbers were being utilized to handle bets in the ENGLISH district at the present time:

[redacted]

On December 17, 1962, the informant advised that [redacted] b6 b7C b7D

SAM and CHUCK ENGLISH, together with [redacted] and [redacted] were at Fifth Jacks at 3:00 PM, December 17, 1962. [redacted] is possibly identical with an [redacted] and [redacted] are apparently operating together as bookmakers and requested [redacted] to contact one [redacted], a resident of the Hoover Hotel, Room 306, about the money he owed [redacted] and [redacted] from gambling losses. b6 b7C

On the same date, CHUCK ENGLISH told SAM ENGLISH that he had missed the boat by not putting BRAVOS' A-1 Laundry Service in ENGLISH's building on Augusta. SAM ENGLISH said that he had considered this but could not handle it due to the lack of room.

Shortly after midnight on December 17, 1962, Officer [redacted], accompanied by two other officers from the Fillmore District, came to Fifth Jacks to speak to [redacted] They asked about a tavern located somewhere on Karlov Street, at which an arrest had been made or was to be made in connection with selling liquor to minors. They were inquiring to see if this tavern was affiliated with the ENGLISH interests and if not they would go along with the arrest. b6 b7C

Both SAM and CHUCK ENGLISH were at Fifth Jacks Restaurant as of 11:25 AM on December 18, 1962.

On December 17, 1962, [redacted] drove from Fifth Jacks to the following locations where in each [redacted] passed the word that the district was again "open": b6 b7C

1. 719 South Kedzie, a liquor store;

2. A location in the 4200 block of West Roosevelt, exact address unknown;

3. [redacted] lounge at Kedzie and Madison Street; b6 b7C

4. Macy's on Kedzie and Fifth Avenue.

While in [redacted] lounge, [redacted] learned from [redacted] that the latter wanted to put a strip show in this location and wanted to get clearance from BUTCH ENGLISH for this show. It should be noted that [redacted] also owns the Bunny Lounge on West Madison Street. b6 b7C

During the early morning hours of December 18, 1962, CHUCK ENGLISH, [redacted] were engaged in a conversation at Fifth Jacks Lounge. b6 b7C

On December 18, 1962, [redacted] invited BUTCH ENGLISH and his wife to dinner on December 21, 1962. At BUTCH's suggestion CHUCK ENGLISH and his wife were also included in this invitation. b6 b7C

On December 18, 1962, BUTCH ENGLISH planned to accompany [redacted] downtown at 12:15 PM to an appointment with State Senator BERNARD J. NIESTEIN. b6 b7C

CG 92-887

On December 21, 1962, informant advised that [redacted] b6 b7C b7D

According to the informant, [redacted]

On December 27, 1962, [redacted] called the home of [redacted] and told him to come to [redacted] office on the morning of December 31, 1962, at which time [redacted] was to pick up [redacted] petitions for alderman. b6 b7C

On the same date, ENGLISH learned from State Senator BERNARD J. NIESTEIN that NIESTEIN and the Democratic organization will support [redacted] for [redacted] and not [redacted] who was scheduled to replace [redacted] ENGLISH has indicated to [redacted] that he must go along with NIESTEIN on the surface but secretly will attempt to deliver votes for [redacted] advised the informant that [redacted] b6 b7C b7D

[redacted] As previously reported to the Bureau, [redacted] on orders of SAM GIANCANA developed a "heart condition" and is being replaced by [redacted]. As previously reported, [redacted] was to be forced out in a similar manner and [redacted] would have replaced him. According to the informant [redacted] b6 b7C b7D

On December 28, 1962, one Officer [redacted] and his partner, name unknown, from the Fillmore Police District, were in Fifth Jacks talking to [redacted] and his partner, in plain clothes, arrived in an unmarked police car, license number [redacted] According to [redacted] arrangements have been made for the district to operate in an open manner, but this decision has not been made "official" as yet. b6 b7C

On December 31, 1962, the informant advised that [redacted] b6 b7C b7D

An unidentified Fillmore District Police Captain called at [redacted] Bunny Lounge, 3300 West Madison, on about December 30, 1962, and emphatically told [redacted] that there would be no more bunny dancers. These bunny dancers were semi-nude hostesses utilized in this lounge.

Rimrock Ranch,
Rimrock, Arizona

AT PHOENIX, ARIZONA

The following investigation was conducted by SAs [redacted] SIDNEY E. HOWE on January 25, 1963:

SAMUEL ENGLISH and a white female, age 35, 5'5", 125-130 pounds, reddish auburn hair, wearing a full length fur coat and blue dress, and an unknown white male, age 40, 6'1", 200 pounds, black hair, greying at temples, neatly dressed in business suit, were observed leaving Transworld Airlines Flight #27, from Chicago at Sky Harbor Airport, at 1:16 PM. These three persons were met by JOE ENGLISH and an unknown white male, 5'11", 175-180 pounds, black hair, dressed in sport clothing, with Italian features.

These five persons departed the Phoenix air terminal in a 1962 white Oldsmobile bearing Arizona plates [redacted] at 1:45 PM. This vehicle was observed stopping at the McFarlands Carpet Service, 24th Street, and Fillmore, at 2:00 PM. JOE ENGLISH was observed placing several rugs into the above described vehicle.

b7C

This vehicle was observed at the Flash Records Shop, North 16th Street, and East Monte Vista, at 2:08 PM.

The unknown male that accompanied JOE ENGLISH was observed driving away from the Flash Records Shop in a late model white over black convertible, believed to be either a Mercury or Chrysler.

The Oldsmobile with Arizona plates [redacted] was observed departing with the other four occupants at 2:25 PM and at 2:33 PM, stopped at Santone's Italian Grocery, North 12th Street and East Camelback Road, where all four occupants entered this store. At 2:53 PM, JOE ENGLISH was observed loading two cardboard boxes into the car and all occupants returned to the vehicle and departed. b6 b7C

This vehicle stopped for gasoline at the Richfield Station North 7th Street and East Camelback Road, then proceeded to the shopping center at 17th Avenue, and West Camelback Road, where the three male occupants entered a package liquor store, returned to the vehicle, then proceeded west to Black Canyon Highway, where they headed in a northern direction. This vehicle was observed still traveling north on Black Canyon Highway, north of West Cactus Road.

CG T-2 advised that JOE ENGLISH has mentioned around Phoenix, Arizona, that it looks like more money is to be invested in the Rimrock Ranch and to make it an operating guest ranch. The possibility exists that the ranch may feature such big name entertainers as FRANK SINATRA and SAMMY DAVIS, JR.

CG T-3 advised that JOE ENGLISH claims that a movie, "Hang 'Em High" starring [redacted] is to be made at the ranch. b6 b7C

CG T-4 advised having heard that SAM ENGLISH and two other unknown individuals, a man and a woman, were at the Rimrock Ranch.

CG T-3 advised that he had heard that JOE ENGLISH said the ranch is divided seven ways, including JOE ENGLISH, SAM ENGLISH, CHUCK ENGLISH, [redacted] and three other unnamed persons. b6 b7C

CG T-2 advised that a [redacted] (LNU), who resides at [redacted] Arizona, is a friend of JOE ENGLISH. According to CG T-2, [redacted] is from Chicago where he operates a bookie joint.

The following investigation was conducted by SA SIDNEY E. HOWE:

A SUCCESSFUL DEFENSE MIGHT LIE IN A CLAIM BY THE ENGLISH BROTHERS THAT PAYMENT OF MONEY WAS MERELY FOR LEASE AND HAD NOTHING TO DO WITH CONSPIRACY TO TRANSPORT SLOT MACHINES IN INTERSTATE COMMERCE. DEPARTMENT HAS ALSO EXPRESSED OPINION THAT IN EVENT PAYMENT WAS MADE BY INFORMANT TO ENGLISH BROTHERS IT WOULD BE IMPOSSIBLE TO LEGALLY RECOVER FUNDS AFTER ARREST INASMUCH AS EVEN THOUGH FUNDS MIGHT BE TRACED DEFENSE WOULD CLAIM PAYMENT IS FOR LEASE AND HAD NO CONNECTION WITH SLOT MACHINES. DEPARTMENT ALSO ADVISED THAT ADDITIONAL EVIDENCE TO SUPPORT STATEMENTS OF INFORMANT WOULD BE NECESSARY IN ANY PROSECUTION AND SUGGESTED NECESSITY OF INFORMANT WEARING CONCEALED TAPE RECORDER TO RECORD CONVERSATIONS WITH ENGLISH BROTHERS. DEPARTMENT OF OPINION THAT PROSECUTION AT BEST IS VERY TENUOUS IN THIS INSTANCE AND SUGGESTED THIS MATTER BE DISCUSSED WITH USA, CHICAGO, PRIOR TO TAKING ANY ACTION TOWARD ADVANCING FUNDS TO INFORMANT TO BE PAID TO ENGLISH BROTHERS. S. AFFAIR 1143

On the night of January 11, 1963, CHUCK ENGLISH, SAM ENGLISH, [redacted] girl friend, [redacted] all spent the evening in Fifth Jack Lounge. CHUCK ENGLISH asked [redacted] to call her sister [redacted] as a date for him, but [redacted] was unavailable. [redacted] plans to obtain a fraudulent identification for [redacted] which will reflect her age as 21. It should be noted that [redacted] is 20 years old, and Illinois law prohibits minors from purchasing alcoholic beverages. During the above meeting, [redacted] mentioned that the "G" is on [redacted] and CHARLES ENGLISH "real strong every day. Don't they ever get tired?" b6 b7C

On January 25, 1963, [redacted] was observed deep in conversation with [redacted] in Fifth Jack Lounge. She appeared to be extremely concerned and during the conversation was joined by [redacted] It should be noted that [redacted] was interviewed by Bureau Agents on January 24, 1963. [redacted] BUTCH and CHUCK ENGLISH and BERNIE NEISTEIN, Illinois State Senator, were in conversation at the Fifth Jack Restaurant from late Sunday evening, February 10, 1963, until about 5:00 AM, Monday morning, February 11, 1963. The details of this conversation were unknown to the informant. About 12:30 AM, February 11, 1963, [redacted] who had been waiting for [redacted] contacted [redacted] concerning clearance of a title for [redacted] car. It appears that due to an accident, [redacted] lost the title and b6 b7C b7D license to his personally owned vehicle and [redacted] was supposed to have taken care of getting this matter straightened out. Apparently [redacted] had not handled this matter and [redacted] wanted [redacted] to contact BERNIE NEISTEIN for the purpose of having NEISTEIN send a special delivery letter to an unknown contact regarding this title and license. b6 b7C

At approximately 2:15 AM, BUTCH ENGLISH requested that two new records be put on the jukebox in Fifth Jack and further that these records be played. The records were the latest recordings made by [redacted] and were made in Arizona. According to the informant, [redacted] It was further stated that [redacted] It was further stated that these [redacted] b6 b7C b7D

"SALAM" DE ROSE (SALVATORE) was in Fifth Jack on Saturday evening, February 9, 1963, in discussion with [redacted] about his, SALAM's, car. SALAM indicated that he was quite concerned for fear the "G" will confiscate this car since the car is not registered in his name and he has apparently been experiencing "heat" because of this situation. It was [redacted] advice that SALAM sell the car before it is confiscated and he is out that money. b6 b7C

On Saturday, February 9, 1963, Sergeant [redacted] of the Fillmore District was in the Fifth Jack Restaurant where he contacted BUTCH ENGLISH and received some money from him.

On February 6, 1963, [redacted] told BUTCH ENGLISH about having been interviewed by Government Agents. He indicated to ENGLISH that Agents had appeared extremely interested in [redacted] and he feared that his brother would be sent to jail. ENGLISH stated that this interest on the part of the Government was undoubtedly due to the fact that he told [redacted] to tell the Government Agents that she had met BUTCH through [redacted] and [redacted] later expressed extreme resentment toward ENGLISH for "middling" his brother [redacted] was in Fifth Jack at about 2:30 PM, on February 6, 1963.

On Monday, February 11, 1963, NEISTEIN, [redacted] and BUTCH ENGLISH were in conversation together at Fifth Jack following a political meeting. During this conversation, ENGLISH arranged with NEISTEIN for an appointment to see Attorney [redacted] in connection with obtaining the exterminating stops for the several hundred laundromats affiliated with [redacted] At 9:45 PM, February 11, 1963, two vice squad officers from the Fillmore District, Chicago Police Department, came to Fifth Jack. According to [redacted] partner of [redacted] in a large bookmaking operation, he had dinner with CHUCK ENGLISH and some other people during the week preceding January 11, 1963. b6 b7C

On February 11, 1963, BUTCH ENGLISH told [redacted] that he should have "run those guys" (FBI Agents) instead of talking to them. [redacted] added that [redacted] could have "run them" in a nice way, like GEORGE the Alderman did. GEORGE the Alderman is [redacted] Berwyn Alderman, who is now a partner with BUTCH ENGLISH in the contract of [redacted] new singing star. [redacted] commented on a new record released by [redacted] entitled "Half a Woman" which has been put out by a firm which lists JOE ENGLISH as one of the producers. [redacted] was surprised that BUTCH's brother's name would be listed. BUTCH ENGLISH said "Why not, he's clean. He fought for his country."

On February 13, 1963, [redacted] advised BUTCH ENGLISH of his interview with FBI Agents at his mother's home. [redacted] told ENGLISH that he had given no information to the Agents but would have "hit the one guy with a sugar bowl" if his mother [redacted] had not been in the house. BUTCH ENGLISH and [redacted] then both asked [redacted] what she had told the Agents during her interview. BUTCH ENGLISH appears quite concerned about the continuing pressure exerted by FBI Agents on his friends and associates. [redacted] has stated that he feels that the Government has a prosecutable case against him and he expects that he might have to go to jail. b6 b7C

Informant is not aware of the nature of the case that [redacted] mentioned to ENGLISH something about "money orders" which b6 b7C b7D

he felt could be used by the Government "to prove" something. [redacted] planned to sell his car as of February 13, 1963, since the car was falsely registered and titled. It should be noted that [redacted] steps are being taken at the present time to have the car seized by State authorities for faulty registration. b6 b7C b7D

On February 14, 1963, informant advised that [redacted] b6 b7C b7D

[redacted] In addition to the false registration on this automobile, [redacted] has picked up numerous traffic tickets which he has always thrown away in the past.

The Bureau discussed the above matter with the Organized Crime and Racketeering Section of the Department. Department Attorneys point out that considerable difficulty would be experienced in establishing the transportation of slot machines was at the direction of the ENGLISH brothers. Further, evidence would also have to be available establishing ownership of the slot machines by the ENGLISH brothers. The Department feels that in the event the informant [redacted] b7D defense of entrapment would unquestionably be raised and would go to the jury and might be successfully sustained by the defense. The Department advised that to establish conspiracy violation it would be necessary to show that payment of money by informant to ENGLISH brothers was a necessary element in obtaining slot machines for subsequent transportation interstate.

The Department believes that a successful defense might lie in a claim by the ENGLISH brothers that payment of money was merely for leasing and had nothing to do with conspiracy to transport slot machines in interstate commerce.

The Department, also advised that additional evidence to support statements of the informant would be necessary in any prosecution and suggested necessity of the informant wearing a concealed tape recorder to record conversations with the ENGLISH brothers.

It should be noted that the Chicago Office had requested money of the Bureau [redacted] b7D In view of the opinion furnished by the Department, mentioned above, the Bureau advised authorization was not being granted at this time.

CG T-8 advised that CHARLES and SAM ENGLISH had not been seen in the area of the Fifth Jack Club since the day following the murder of Alderman BENJAMIN F. LEWIS. (It should be noted that Chicago Alderman of the 24th Ward, BENJAMIN F. LEWIS, who had been re-elected February 26, 1963, was found murdered the morning of February 28, 1963, in his office.
